April 6, 2020

Dear Port Washington Families,

Earlier today, Governor Andrew Cuomo ordered all New York State schools to remain closed until April 29, 2020.

Additionally, Chancellor Betty A. Rosa of the New York State Board of Regents announced today that all June Regents Exams have been canceled. More information on graduation standards is expected to be issued to districts statewide tomorrow afternoon by the NYS Board of Regents. Once we receive this information, we will make it available to the community.

I ask that during these extended school closures, please continue to practice social distancing, take care of yourself and loved ones, and take deep breaths. I can assure you that as we take this day by day, Port Washington will come out stronger and more united as a community.

We will continue to update you as new information becomes available. For useful resources, community updates and district communications regarding COVID-19, please visit the district's website: <https://www.portnet.org/Page/14068>.

Sincerely,
